Self- Drive

Directions By Road - From The South

1. To drive up Cameron Highlands from the South, take the North-South Highway and head up north.
2. You will pass the following towns along the North-South Highway: Rawang - TanjungMalim - Slim River - Sungkai - Bikam - Bidor - Tapah - Gopeng - SimpangPulai.
3. There are two roads leading up to Cameron Highlands. One is the old road from Tapah town and another from Simpang Pulai, which is the new route.

Tapah Exit

Exit the Tapah Interchange (Exit 132) on the North-South Highway after passing Bidor town. At the traffic light right after the tollbooth, turn left and follow the road all the way up to Cameron Highlands.

There are some narrow and sharp turns that you have to be careful of, if you are taking this route from Tapah. Sound the horn if you feel you need to let oncoming traffic know of your existence behind sharp bends. There will also be heavy vehicles going up and down this road, so be careful when overtaking another car. There is no mobile phone coverage on the way up to Cameron Highlands. You will find interesting stalls along the road where the Orang Asli display their handicrafts and forest products for sale.

SimpangPulai Exit (recommended route)

The new route from Simpang Pulai is less winding and the road is wider. As such, drivers tend to speed here, but watch out for the sharp bends at some stretches. There is no mobile phone coverage along this route up to Cameron Highlands and the driving time is longer compared to the route from Tapah.

From the North-South Highway, exit at the Simpang Pulai interchange (Exit 137). Turn right and follow the road signs up Cameron Highlands. You will pass by Kampung Raja, Kuala Terla, Tringkap and Brinchang before reaching Cameron Highlands Resort in Tanah Rata.

Top up your petrol just before you drive up the route to Cameron Highlands. There are several petrol stations along the North South Highway nearing to the exit points. Just be aware that petrol stations in Cameron Highlands open from 8.00am to 5pm.

Cluny Lodge is located within the vicinity of Brinchang. Turn into the minor road leading to Strawberry Park Resort and there will be signs leading to Cluny Lodge.
